Reporting hate crime

A hate crime is an incident that you believe was motivated by hostility based on your:

- disability
- race
- religion/belief
- sexual orientation
- transgender identity

1. You can report hate crime to the police on 999 (emergency) or 101 (non-emergency).

2. If you do not want to talk to the police or fill in the reporting forms, you can still report it anonymously by calling Crimestoppers (not part of the police) on 0800 555111 or via their website at www.crimestoppers-uk.org
